

CRISCI & PARTNERS
SHAREHOLDERS AND BOARD CONSULTING

“The price of greatness is responsibility.”

[Winston Churchill]

An independent professional firm with long and significant experience in the area of consultancy, aimed at the continuous improvement of the structure and practice of corporate governance, of the composition, functioning, performance evaluation and formation of the Board of Directors and its Committees, and the development of corporate leadership.

Experts on the specific issues in Family Businesses, relating to management and its generational succession.

Improving Corporate Governance

The role and effectiveness of Board actions depend on the quality of people involved, their leadership, mix of skills and personal qualities, the amount of time they dedicate to their Board Member activities, their behaviour, team spirit and the interaction dynamics among Directors.

The values of the Chairman, Executive and Non-Executive Directors, their responsibility, personal commitment and approach to good governance practices are at least as important as the faithful application of rules and regulations.

The depth and ease of interaction between the Board and Top Management is another key success factor for companies.

Crisci&Partners carries out searches for the various members of Boards of Directors, conducts Board and Committee performance evaluations, advises on strategic development plans for the Board, its Committees and individual Directors.

Corporate Leadership

Thanks to the significant experience acquired by its team in top Executive Search, Crisci&Partners offers professional research and evaluation services for executive positions at Board level - Chairmen, CEOs and Directors - that report directly to the Board - General Managers and Chief Financial Officers - and who liaise with the Board of Directors on specific areas - Board Secretaries, Chief Corporate Governance Officers, General Counsels, Compliance, Audit and Risk Managers.

Crisci&Partners helps in the formation and refining of Boards of Directors, boasting unique experience in the search for Chairmen, CEOs and Independent Directors.
